Rule

Game settings:

Before the game starts, you need to shuffle all biobrick cards and place them in a 5*5 manners. You should also shuffle and stack the product cards for later use.

During the game:

Players decide the game order by themselves. The first player draws a product card from the deck and lays it on the table face-up. Players should perform the following steps each round until the end of the game.

1. Open five Biobrick cards.
2. Display the function of the Special Biobrick Cards.
3. Cover the cards face-down.
4. The round ends.

Game over:

When the cards the player opens contain Promoter, RBS, Ubx protein, a specific protein that matches the product card, and Terminator, the player wins.

Special Biobrick Card Notes:

If more than one special Biobrick card is revealed in a round, the effects can be displayed by order. All effects should be used in that round.
