INFORMATION SHEET FOR PARTICIPANTS

We would like to invite you to participate in the recording of the Mini Jamboree. Before you decide whether to take part, it is important to understand why the research is being conducted and what your participation will involve. Please take time to read the following information carefully and discuss it with others if you wish. Ask us if anything is unclear or if you would like more information.

Voluntary participation and data protection

It is your choice whether or not to take part. If you decide to take part, you are still free to withdraw from the livestream or recording at any time, without giving a reason and without any consequences.

After the livestream, you have the right to request the deletion of any notes, without any explanation. Note that we will not be able to process this request after December 9th, 2026.

Recording and the use of data

All data collected will be stored securely on the team's OneDrive folder, accessible only to team members through authorised access. The collected data will be used solely for iGEM project purposes, such as presentations and publication in the team's wiki. The recording may be published on the Imperial iGEM Youtube channel.

Risks and benefits to the participant

There are no risks in participating in this livestream/recording. By taking part, you will contribute to our project and to public engagement.
